

Assemblyman N. Nick Perry:

New York is open for business

Assemblyman Perry helped pass a budget that keeps NY competitive and creates jobs

- ✓ Lowers manufacturers' income tax rate to ZERO and slashes their property taxes by 20% to spur growth
- ✓ Cuts an energy tax on businesses and residents, saving $600 million over 3 years
- ✓ Cuts the business tax rate to its lowest level since 1968, helping to lure more out-of-state companies to NY

"I voted to cut business taxes to help bring more jobs to our region. We're making New York more business-friendly to keep our economy headed in the right direction."
