ASSEMBLY ASSISTANT MAJORITY LEADER CHARLES D. FALL STATEMENT ON THE FATAL SHOOTING OF 13 YEAR OLD JAMOURE HARRELL

“We are heartbroken as a community by the news of this tragic shooting. As we navigate through this difficult time, please keep the family, friends, classmates, teachers, and loved ones of Jamoure in your prayers. We cannot tolerate these senseless acts of violence any longer. Our children deserve to live out their childhood.

I have two daughters and upon hearing this news, I wanted nothing more than to go find them and hug them. Through our grief and anger we must come together and find solutions to combat gun violence. Our children need guidance and support now more than ever. We must be just as intentional with our actions as we are with our words. I am committed to working with the community, my colleagues and law enforcement in exhausting every option to ensure that we don't lose another child. My team and I have been in contact with the Harrell family and are ready to provide support in any way we can. Let's all continue to lift up our community so that we see an end to this violence that plagues us.”

Governor Hochul Announces More Than $47 Million to Provide Summer Jobs for Disadvantaged Youth

Governor Kathy Hochul today announced that more than $47.1 million will be available to support New York State's Summer Youth Employment Program this year, helping an estimated 18,500 young New Yorkers gain valuable experience in the workforce. Administered by the State Office of Temporary and Disability Assistance, this program introduces young people from low-income families into the labor market so they can develop useful skills that will help them improve educational performance and become responsible adults.

"For so many young people, having a summer job is a rite of passage that helps them gain valuable skills and their first experiences in the workplace," Governor Hochul said. "The Summer Youth Employment Program provides invaluable experiences for young people from low-income households, teaching them responsibilities that can help them excel in careers later in life."

"With this investment, we're ensuring our teens and young adults have equitable access to job opportunities, training, and workforce experience," said Lieutenant Governor Delgado. "We must support historically underserved communities, provide resources for families statewide, and put our kids on the path to success."

The Summer Youth Employment program supports communities across the state in creating summer jobs for youth from low-income families. Participants work in entry-level jobs at places such parks, summer camps, child care organizations, cultural centers, educational facilities, and community-based organizations, among others.

To be eligible for the 2023 program, young people must be between ages 14 to 20 and have a household income below 200 percent of the federal poverty level or $49,720 for a family of three. The program served more than 18,500 youth in 2022, providing them with valuable workforce experience, and often results in improved academic performance afterward.
