Dear Friend,

I'm committed to improving the quality of life and affordability of our region and across New York State. During this legislative session, I will fight for laws that protect and support our communities, businesses, families and environment.

Hearing from constituents is the best way for me to be the voice of our community in Albany. Please take the time to fill out my survey so that I can more effectively work for Western New York families during the 2024 legislative session.

Sincerely,

Karen M. McMahon
