"I'm extremely pleased to announce more than $10 million⁸ in state funding to invest in local infrastructure, libraries and local governments."

— Assemblyman Matt Slater

The NYS Budget delivered nearly $750,000² in aid for local governments to help ease the burden on property taxpayers. In addition, Slater provided $175,000³ to fund a new truck for the Yorktown Heights Fire District, renovate the Homestead Horse Barn in Somers and fund improvements to the Yorktown Grange Fairgrounds.

INFRASTRUCTURE Assemblyman Matt Slater helped deliver millions in state funding to repave roadways in Yorktown and Somers and reduce the cost to town government.⁴ This also included a major $4 million investment to repair Rte. 202 in Yorktown.⁵

LIBRARIES Assemblyman Slater provided $20,000 to refurbish the Somers Library, improving its facilities and programming to create a more welcoming space for community events and daily use.

LAW ENFORCEMENT Assemblyman Slater helped provide more than $500,000⁶ for the Yorktown Police Department for technology and communications upgrades.
