According to the Office of the State Comptroller (OSC), New York currently has billions in unclaimed funds. As your state Assemblyman, my office is collaborating with the comptroller to help return this money to its rightful owners. These unclaimed funds may include forgotten bank accounts, lost paychecks, uncashed gift cards, and more. In 2026, OSC returned more than $130 million to New Yorkers.

You or someone in your household may be entitled to these funds, and helping you access this information is part of my ongoing commitment to prioritizing affordability for our residents. Every penny counts, and it's important that you have the resources to reclaim any funds that may be owed to you.

To check if you or someone in your household may be entitled to unclaimed funds from New York State, visit the OSC's website at www.osc.ny.gov/unclaimed-funds or call 1-800-221-9311. There is no fee for searching and claiming lost funds through the Comptroller's Office.

If you have any questions or need additional assistance, please do not hesitate to contact my office.

Sincerely,

Brian Miller

State Assemblyman, 122nd District
