

Assemblymember Monica Wallace:

A strong voice for Western New York schools

“Every family wants their children to get the highest-quality education. That’s why I’ll always stand up for our schools and fight to secure the resources educators need to give our students the brightest future possible.”

Assemblymember Monica Wallace is fighting for Buffalo schools

Assemblymember Wallace helped secure bold investments in the 2023-24 state budget for the Buffalo City School District including:

- Almost $925 million in total education aid, a 8.7% increase from last year
- Nearly $689 million in Foundation Aid, a 11.2% increase from last year
- Over $19 million for universal pre-K for our youngest students
